For the Respondents : Mr. Binod Kumar, AC to SC 16 For Respondent No.4 : Mr. K.K. Sinha, Advocate
===== CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE JAYANANDAN SINGH ORAL ORDER

3 04-04-2013 From Annexure-7 it is apparent that the matter is still pending with the State Information Commission and it has asked the First Appellate Authority of the Health & Family Welfare Department to comply its order and communicate its decision. Petitioner has rushed to this Court straightaway raising the grievance that the said order has not been complied with. If that is so, he should have approached the State Information Commission itself for taking coercive action against the first

Appellate Authority instead of filing this writ application. Patna High Court CWJC No.4911 of 2013 (3)
dt.04-04-2013

This writ application is totally misconceived and is an attempt to abuse the process of the Court. The same is dismissed with a cost of Rs.1000/- (Rupees one thousand) which District Magistrate, Bhojpur at Ara shall realize from the petitioner by way of public demand, if necessary, and shall transmit the same to the Civil Surgeon, Bhojpur for being deposited in Public Exchequer.
